Dylan is looking for a special home with understanding owners to help him grow in confidence and build bonds.

Dylan loves human company but doesn't like to be over handled and needs to be comfortable with people in order for them to see the real him.

Dylan is a typical collie and loves to play fetch, he enjoys the company of other dogs on walks but doesn't like too much contact so is best to live as the only dog. This boy is a real lovely lad once you know him.

Dylan is looking for a family with vast collie experience who understand his needs, due to his issue of over handling he is looking for a family with children over the age of 16 years.
