Jess is a beautiful natured girl, who does enjoy lots of fuss and attention.

Unfortunately Jess has been diagnosed with a skin cell tumour (skin cancer), meaning Jess life will be significantly shortened and is looking for an end of life home. She is not keen on other dogs, so will need a new home where she is going to be the only canine member of the family. Jess enjoys playing with soft toys and going for walks, she does walk well on the lead too.

If you think you can offer Jess a forever home, please give our Wolverhampton Home a ring.
