Meet Cali,

Cali is a very sensitive soul who gets very nervous in new situations. She is looking for a quieter home where she can build a bond slowly.

She loves to be out on walks exploring the big world when on walks she loves to carry a toy with her. However she needs a bit of reassurance to learn that the world isn't a big scary place.

Due to Cali's size she can be very strong on the lead however walks better on the harness. Therefore she will need an owner who will be able to hold her as she can be a bit reactive when meeting new dogs and people.

If you could give this nervous girl a forever home please contact Birmingham Centre.
