Hi my name is Leo, I am a very energetic chap that can clear a 6ft fence so I will need a very secure garden.

I can be very affectionate when there is people around but as soon as they have popped out, I will open the doors or probably chew a few thing up as you have left me on my own. Therefore I will need games or something I am allowed to chew to keep me occupied.

My ideal home is a young couple with a lot of experience how to handle a very lively dog, I would ideally like to be given a job to do. I would also need a home with no small animals or any cats.

For my basic commands, I do know a few in the house, but when I am outside I tend to forget it all so I will need to be kept on a long lead to be exercised.
