Hi my name is Carl I can be a bit of a handful at the times but my canine carers are working with me to help me calm down.

I will need a confident family who will continue with my training and have no children as I can be a little play nippy.

For my basic commands I will sit. I love to be in the paddock playing fetch and will drop for a treat.

Please if you have the time and patience to help me, then please come and see me out.

Lick and kisses Carl.
